

OF SERVICE TO THOSE WHO HAVE SERVED

Staffs NARPO has erected a memorial seat at The National Memorial Arboretum at Alrewas, Staffordshire.

A service of dedication will take place at noon on Monday, 12th April, 2010.

An invitation is extended to you all to attend.

Please arrive at 10 am and meet in the restaurant for morning coffee. We will attend the Millennium Chapel for the daily act of remembrance at 11 am and then move to the Police Garden for the dedication, for 12 midday.

The dedication will be conducted by Rev. John Davies, who many of you will know, also a retired Police Officer and NARPO member.

Those wishing to stay on will be welcome to join others for lunch in the restaurant.

The National Memorial Arboretum is well worth a visit by anyone.

National Memorial Arboretum
Croxall Road
Alrewas
Staffordshire DE13 7AR

Mobility Disabled friendly:
Scooters and wheelchairs
Available:
book in advance
01283 792333